Dear Friend

The Fourteenth Annual Hilton Head Island Gullah Celebration is a month-long event held during the month of February. The "Gullah Celebration" allows visitors to share in the rich cultural traditions of former African Slaves, who are the original Gullahs. The Celebration showcases the heritage of the Gullah people and their history on Hilton Head Island. With the unique culture came a thriving mix of language, folktales, food ways, spirituality, and living simply just as they did more than a hundred years ago.

The Gullah Celebration Circle was created to give individuals an opportunity to experience the richness of the Gullah culture and to make a contribution to the preservation of the Gullah Culture. You are cordially invited to become a member of the 2010 Gullah Celebration Circle for a donation of $100.00. For your tax deductible donation you will receive:

1. A complimentary 2010 Hilton Head Island Gullah Celebration unsigned poster (2010 Poster by world- renowned Artist Jonathan Green).
2. A name listing in the 2010 Gullah Celebration Brochure
3. Four (4) tickets to the Arts, Craft and Food Expo (2-day event, Saturday, February 13 & Sunday, February 14, 2010).
